Dear Paul -

Thank you for your superb review of Caputo's book. It will probably appear in the August issue.

Jim Binder, the editor, has asked me to write and ask whether you are serious in wishing to remain anonymous. If so, he will of course respect your wish. But it seems to both of us that the review would have more impact if it were signed. And we are at a loss to see why anything you wrote would reflect adversely on you — or the contrary.

But it is up to you. Please do let us know. All best & many thanks again.

Yrs —

Martin
